About This Game

Party Golf combines simple 2D physics, a procedurally generated world and over a trillion different gameplay combinations.

Features

- 4-player local-multiplayer and even 8-player matches (with wacky shared controller mode)
- Over 100 included game modes, or make your own with the super powerful gameplay customisation system
- Procedurally generated terrains so you'll never play the same hole twice
- Insanely customizable powerups to suit any play style, or match
- Twitch integration that allows viewers to directly change the gameplay through the group chat

But does it have...

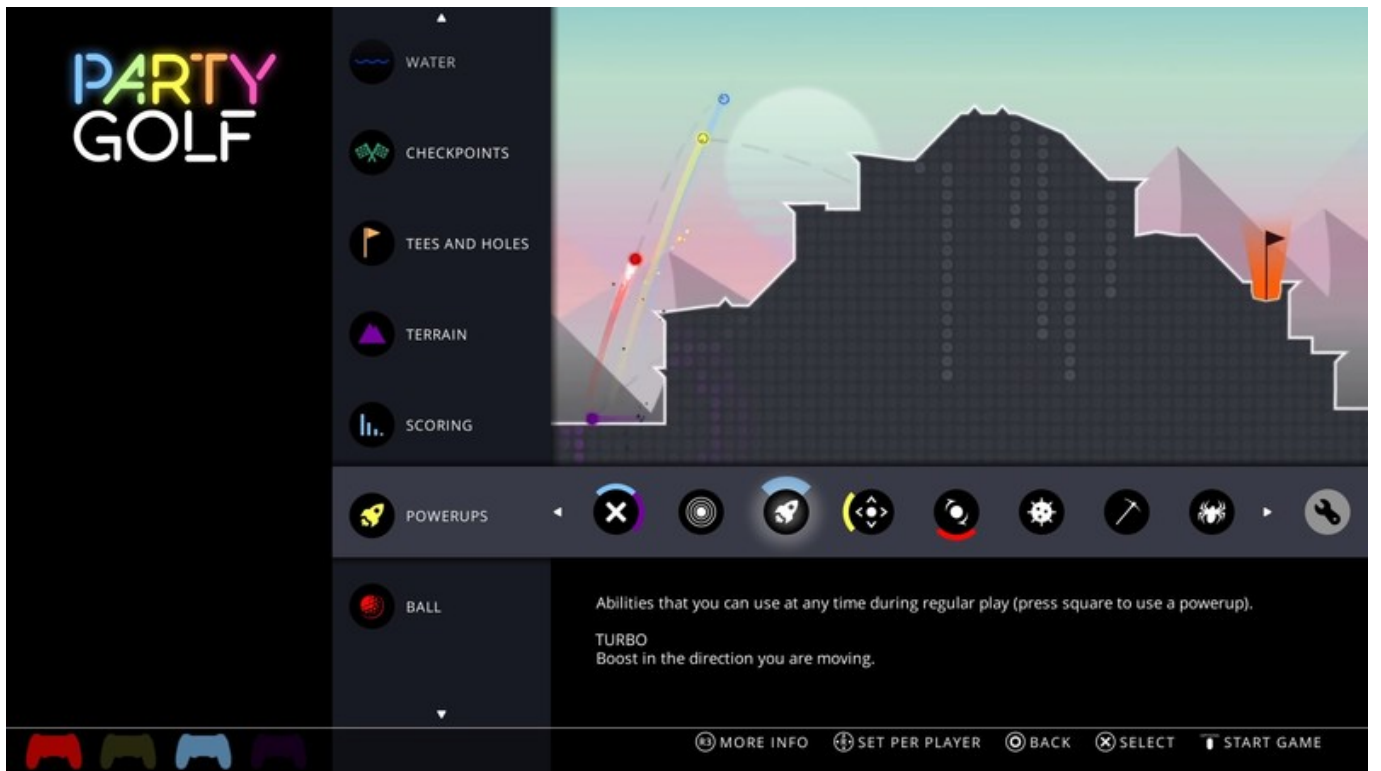

- Giant Bananas? Check.
- Wall hacking powerups? Check.
- Night golf? Flexible scoring rules? Single-Player trials mode??? Check, check and check.

When you spend a few hours starting up the next round as fast as possible, whilst screaming at your ball to get in the hole first (depending on the game mode) , I suppose it's a sign you like the game!

Terrific fun for Local Multi-Player, with a few issues here and there depending on the game mode and mods (i.e. one player may always begin a round with a very poor starting position)
